CA	 Exhaustion of State Court Remedies: In order to proceed in federal court you must ordinarily first exhaust your state court remedies as to each ground on which you request action by the federal court. This means that even if you have exhausted some grounds by raising them before the California Supreme Court, you must first present all other grounds to the California Supreme Court before raising them in your federal Petition.
٠.	• Single Petition : If you fail to set forth all grounds in this Petition challenging a specific judgment, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds challenging the same judgment at a later date.
	• Factual Specificity : You must state facts, not conclusions, in support of your grounds. For example, if you are claiming incompetence of counsel you must state facts specifically setting forth what your attorney did or failed to do. A rule of thumb to follow is — state who did exactly what to violate your federal constitutional rights at what time or place.

GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

- 22. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the constitution, law or treaties of the United States. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. (e.g. what happened during the state proceedings that you contend resulted in a violation of the constitution, law or treaties of the United States.) If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and/or facts supporting each ground.
- Were petitioners U.S. Const. Rights violated when (a) GROUND ONE: the trial-court "abused its discretion" against third party culpability evidence in violation of the 6TH. & 14th. Amendment? Supporting FACTS: The Cal. Sup. Crt. discarded the issue on harmless error grounds; when keeping (both) 3rd. partys testimony from being weighed by the jury egregiously hampered the petitioners defense of "total-innocence". The State Courts down played (more then one) 3rd. party witnesses testimony causing their selves to commit an incurable "structural-defect". 2-witnesses willing to testify about three other individuals with very plausible motives (for the murder) is extremely beyond an harmless error. A total defense & not a partial one should have been brought forth to first protect the petitioners Constitutional Rights & to bring very pertinent credibility to petitioners total innocence, instead it robbed him of his due process rights to fair, impartial & equal protection under the laws of the Constitution, at the very heart of the trial; which then allowed the prosecution to use the trial attorneys inadequate decisions to bolster (his own) claims.

the trial attorney made a reasonable tactical decision when he so far below normal standards he filed for a new trial on the grounds of his own self admittance of ineffectiveness The lower courts erroneously denied the motion & the petitioners otherwise plausible defense of total innocence was hindered $&$
